LEARN HOW TO PRODUCE IMPACTFUL ADVENTURE FILMS WITH MINIMAL EQUIPMENT AND BUDGET

WHO'S IT FOR?

If you have a love for the outdoors, travel and want to learn how to capture your adventures on film with simple methods and minimal equipment, this workshop is for you.

You might also be an aspiring filmmaker, outdoor or tourism professional who wishes to add video content to your skill set. This short workshop is designed for beginners and those who have intermediate photography/videography experience but wish to learn on smartphones specifically.

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

Shooting

New techniques and insider tips on how to use your phone to capture cinematic footage and clips worthy of the big screen.

Storytelling

How to plan your film, structure a narrative and tell your story in a compelling, unique and memorable way.

Environment

Shooting in the outdoors and how to navigate challenging conditions as well as ways to use nature and the time of day to get stunning shots.

Gear

Understand which lightweight, minimal kit to use for maximum impact and a guide on how to use it.

Editing

How to edit your film on the go with just your phone.

"I can't wait to show people the potential of making adventure films in an ultralight, fun and simple way."

ABOUT KIM

Kim started his career as a social media and content consultant working with some of the world's leading brands including Coca-Cola and Rolls-Royce.

Bored of office life, he quit his 9-5 to start an adventure company 'UnlostCo.' where he honed his skills making videos with the most minimal equipment possible.

Founding Touch Video Academy he has trained people at major brands including the Apple Store, National Trust and TATE Galleries. Kim also travels the world creating videos for a range of adventure and travel clients using only his iPhone.

"I walked away feeling inspired and excited, with useful techniques and guidance to start planning, filming and editing films on mobile".

Ruth Brandt, Social Media Manager, National Trust

"Very quickly you realise you can do much more than you thought you could with a phone. The films we produced were way beyond my wildest expectations."

Justin Frances, Founder Responsible Travel.
